

together at a subtle level through our shared commitment and dedication to the work for the Theosophical Society.

May the wonderful warmth, forces and energies raised during these special days, radiate outwards to inspire and uplift all beings, not only on the American Continent but worldwide, and may this event be overshadowed by the love, guidance and blessing of The Holy Ones.

Warmest fraternal regards to you all,

Marie (Harkness)

Organising Secretary of the Theosophical Society in Ireland

