

It is what makes Theosophical gatherings so special:
that what happens in the corridors and foyer, after or just before a talk