

Saturday August 9, the foyer is filling up again and those beautiful flowers are still there in all their glory ... it is going to be a busy day