

world where darkness and misery so often prevail?

“The essence of Theosophy is the perfect harmonizing of the divine with the human in man, the adjustment of his godlike qualities and aspirations, and their sway over the terrestrial or animal passions in him.” (H. P. B. to the American Convention 1888)

Let's put this into practice and start by agreeing on the principles that we can find in the original teachings as a basis for finding and sharing those godlike aspirations. Then use our higher qualities to reason and find harmony, and please: let's forgive each other when our ego's play up and we become unreasonable because of some emotional attachment. We are, after all, all students.
