

Editorial

From the Bottom Up

by Jan Nicolaas Kind

The Theosophical Society, Adyar, is going through an important transitional period. After the passing of Radha Burnier, for 33 years its international president last October, a successor needs to be chosen. With her death, an era came to an end. International presidents like Henry Olcott, Annie

From the Bottom Up