

upliftment of humanity. The history of the Society is clear on this point: the one thing for which it is founded is to help the true progress of humanity. How can the Society have Objects not related to that purpose? Perhaps in our Lodges and groups we have not given sufficient consideration to the meaning of the Objects of the Society. We assume them to be unconnected. But if we see the relatedness, then all of us can work together for the same thing, which is the renewal of the human mind, human regeneration.
